THE FAIR

To-Day is Our Opening
Day in Holiday
Goods.

BE AN EARLY BIRD.

Don't wait until the last moment to buy your Christmas Goods. It's a mistake to put it off any longer, for goods cannot be replaced in time this season.

Delays are disappointing both to you and to us.

BEST TOY VALUES WE EVER HAD
is the common remark of our customers.
BOOKS! BOOKS! BOOKS!
SPECIAL CUT PRICES ON BOOKS for to-day, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, only. These books are chosen titles and the best books ever put on the market for the price, and as we bought them less than publishers' prices our customers can prepare for a surprising four days sale of books. Put up in lots of six, elegant cloth bound books, regular price 25c each, with gold titles, and some with gold tops, the six books for 45c. At the price named we cannot vary the assortment.

HOME SERIES

of selected Christmas books for boys and girls, handsomely bound in new designs and colors, 32 pages richly illustrated, and cheap at 15c each, now on sale at 9c each, also a line of picture books from 1c and upwards. In this same purchase an assortment of Humorous Books, such as "Peck's Bad Boy and his Pa," "Samantha at Saratoga," and others, the 50c kind at 28c each.

GREEN TAG SALE FRIDAY.

Every article bearing a green tag will be greatly reduced in price for this day only.

HERE'S HOW I FIGURE.

He who sells on a small profit for cash sells quickly. He who sells quickly for cash sells much. He who sells quickly sells much for cash on a small profit, and earns little on much, and much on many.

The Green Tags displayed will show you how cheap you can purchase goods here Friday.

AMUSEMENTS.

—"King Dodo," the merry Pixley and Lucers comedy opera, still maintains the reputation it had last year for attracting large audiences. In nearly every city in which this work has been presented the present season it has been the story of "Standing Room Only," at nearly every performance. Not only is the music of "King Dodo" far above the average heard in works of this kind, but the lines too scintillate with wit and

KING DODO

humor, and there is enough of the vernacular of the day incorporated in the libretto to make it very palatable and spicy.

"Referring to your favor of the eleventh, we admit the receipt of same, and we are flabbergasted," says the old and senile monarch to the beautiful queen of Spoojulaud, whereupon she instantly invites him to her palace to refresh his inner man with doughnuts and chocolate. There is amusement in "King Dodo" for all classes of theatregoers; those who go to the play-house simply to laugh and for those who enjoy bright lines and pretty music. And there is another side to the production in that it is a big spectacle with handsome costumes and a host of pretty women who make up the chorus and coas fine an Amazon march, all clad in purest white, as the stage has seen in the past decade. At the Grand to-morrow (Wednesday) night

—O—

MARGUERITA SYLVA in "THE STROLLERS." The star of the organization known as the "Marguerita Sylva Comic Opera Company" is now nearing her way to this city with a company of eighty people, presenting Geo. W. Lederer's Musical Play, "The Strollers." This is the first visit of the play to the West, yet little introduction is needed for either.
Miss Sylva has been singularly successful in her short career in this country. Last year she appeared in Willard Spencer's opera, "Miss Bob White," and the previous season she was the feature and star of the "Princess Chic" Company.

She is surrounded by a company of Comedians which contains many notable names, and an entire scenic production is carried.
